THE SUN will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashion, now pretty well understood by everybody. From January I until December 31 it will be conducted as a Genuine Singer Sewing Machines newspaper, written in the English language SPENGLER HOUSE.

Rewspaper, written in the English language, and printed for the people.

As a newspaper, The Sun believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its readers to keep well abreast of the age with the least unprod expenditure of time. The greatest interest the greatest number—that is, the law contro ing its daily make-up. It now has a circula-ion very much larger than that of any other
